INTRODUCTION OF APF COMMAND AND STAFF COLLEGE

APF Command and Staff College is a Educational institution of Armed Police Force (APF), Nepal, where officers receive staff training and education. This college is affiliated to the Faculty of Humanities & Social Sciences, Tribhuvan University Kathmandu, Nepal. This is the center of excellence of Armed Police Force and also works as the think tank of the organization.

This college trains its selected officers in the administrative, operational, staff and policy aspects of the organization. Participating Officers will be awarded with Masters in Security, Development and Peace Studies (MSDPS) hand in hand with Professional Studies of Command and Staff Course after successful completion of the Course.

The college is headed by Deputy Inspector General of APF assigned as the Commandant and Chairperson of College Management Committee. The College has two main wings: Academic and the Professional Wing. Academic Wing is headed by Academic Coordinator and is responsible for overall academic program of MSDPS. Eminent professors, professional experts and academicians run their program.

Professional Wing is headed by Chief Instructor and is composed of internal instructors who all are Command and Staff Course qualified from Nepal/abroad.

This part is conducted in a syndicate and is facilitated by Directing Staff.

The College runs various research programs and conducts different workshops, seminars in contemporary pertinent issues. It also organizes short term and special professional courses in coordination and collaboration with other relevant institution and agencies.

PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

professionally sound, competent and capable enough to perform its mandated task in an effective manner. It is more important for the field commanders and mid-level staff officers working in Brigade/Headquarters to enhance the professionalism and effectiveness in service delivery as well as to ensure that the organizational objectives are achieved. Organization may achieve its desired goal only when the officers working in the organization are competent enough and possess the capacity to perform the given task as expected. This can only be developed through well designed training and professional courses. Since its inception Armed Police Force, Nepal has been conducting needed professional courses as per the mandate entrusted by the government of Nepal.

The paradigm shift from traditional to nontraditional security threat has demanded innovative learning's and techniques to address the changing security dynamics. It is right time to foster this College enhancing the overall professionalism and effectiveness of the officers working in the organization. This ultimately supports the organization to achieve excellence in the mandates as entrusted by the Government of Nepal. Officers must be able to identify the present security challenges at national, regional & global context and should also be able to extract the essence considering the political, social, cultural, religious, economic, diplomatic contexts in an informed and holistic way. Establishment of APF Command & Staff College is envisaged to meet the requirements. This course has incorporated professional as well as academic studies in contemporary pertinent issues aligning it with different research work.

AIM OF THE COURSE

To enhance professional knowledge and understanding of the student officers preparing them for mid-level command and staff appointments and further experience them to assume higher command and staff responsibilities.
